

St Peter's Church

The top end of St Peter's Street, with the tower of St Peter's visible in the centre-left of the photograph

Town Hall

The current Georgian building is now believed to be built on the site of the medieval Moot Hall, where John Ball was tried in 1381

View of St Albans Abbey down St Peter's Street, with the Town Hall on the left-hand side

View of the Corn Exchange, where an act of civil disobedience began over the public right of way from Waxhouse Gate towards the Abbey

View down French Row

Fleur de Lys Inn

Clock Tower

While the Clock Tower was built in the decades after the Revolt, the space was the original market place and where documents from the Abbey were burned

Waxhouse Gate, accessed from the opposite side of George Street

The public right of way towards the Abbey from Waxhouse Gate

Vintry Garden

The cloister and Abbot's Parlour

The cloister and Abbot's Parlour

West entrance/Abbey gaol

West entrance/Abbey gaol

Romeland

Romeland

Romeland

The Great Gateway

The Great Gateway

The Great Gateway

Ye Olde Fighting Cocks

Ye Olde Fighting Cocks

Entrance to the Abbey grounds and site of a medieval fishpool owned by the Abbey